APPLICATION DISCLOSURE FORM

Under Washington law, the North Central Regional Library is required to obtain a written disclosure form from all applicants for employment or for volunteer positions which will or may involve unsupervised access to children less than sixteen years of age, or developmentally disabled persons or vulnerable adults. You must complete this disclosure form for your application to be considered.

In addition, under Washington law, the North Central Regional Library will make a background inquiry with the Washington State Patrol if you are offered and after you accept employment. The background inquiry covers civil adjudications, convictions, and disciplinary board final decisions regarding certain crimes. Successful completion of this background inquiry is a condition of employment with NCRL. Information obtained from both the disclosure statement and from the background inquiries may not necessarily prevent employment. The information will be considered in determining the applicant's suitability and competence to perform the job and on this basis, may result in a denial of employment. A copy of the response will be made available to the applicant upon request.

Answer YES or NO to each listed question.
