NCW LIBRARIES OFFERS MUSIC PROGRAM

Award-winning Native American hip-hop legends RezLoyal Family will give a free performance at the Omak Performing Arts Center that will be live-streamed on Facebook.

NCW Libraries is partnering with Wenatchee Valley College to present the program at 6 p.m. Nov. 16 as we celebrate Native American Heritage Month.

RezLoyal is a past winner of the West Coast American Indian Music Awards for the People's Choice Champion Award.

Rezloyal Family includes Jamerson Cheer, Jeriah Cheer and Vaughn Yellowwolf Jr., all members of the Colville Confederated Tribes, and DJ Tee of the Lapwai Tribe. Yellowwolf has played on stage with music legends including Carlos Santana. According to the band, DJ Tee is the top-ranked Native American DJ on the west coast and has won numerous DJ battles. And Jamerson is an award-winning artist who has been involved with the Native hip-hop scene since 2006.

Please register to see the concert in person at www.ncwlibraries.org on the events calendar. (Register here).

The event will be streamed live on the Wenatchee Valley College Facebook page.
